

Heaven, My Father's House (Looking forward to heaven)

John 14:3

Pastor Bobby Garvin

- Fear will always knock on your _____. Just don't invite it for _____. And for heaven's sake, don't offer it a _____ for the night.
- If Jesus' tomb is empty, then His _____ is not. So, let's die with faith.
- I am looking forward to _____. Knowing where you are going takes the _____ out of getting there.
- What do I need when I'm dying? Unshakeable hope that God keeps His promise. The Bible is _____; therefore my hope will be _____.

We have hope for _____ (John 14:3)

- Heaven is our _____ hope.
- The best of what we have known and experienced in this life is but the _____ for that main entrée that is to come in heaven.

We have a Hope for _____ (John 14:3)

- * We are in the land of the _____ headed for the land of the _____.
- * Jesus elevates _____ to the same level as _____.
- * Your final glimpse of life will trigger your _____ glimpse of _____.
- * Death is a new adventure in _____. No need to dread it or ignore it. Because of Christ, you can _____ it.

